THIS WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) HAVING COME UP FOR ADMISSION ON 28/06/2007, THE COURT ON THE SAME DAY DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

W.P.(C).NO.18909 OF 2007

Dated this the 28th day of June, 2007

JUDGMENT

Raman, J.

The petitioner is stated to be a money lender. According to him, one Dr.Madhusoodanan had borrowed from him an amount of Rs.1 lakh. Doctor's wife is running a beauty parlour, who also alleged to be borrowed money from the petitioner. It is admitted that doctor's wife is prompt in repayment of the amount, whereas the doctor is refusing to return the money. A rumour is spread that the petitioner is having illicit connection with the doctor's wife and that complaining the same, Dr.Madhusoodanan filed a complaint before the police.

2. The learned Government Pleader on instruction submits that no case is registered against the petitioner. We are not entering any finding on the merits of the contentions raised by the petitioner, especially since neither the doctor nor his wife is made a party to the Writ Petition. We direct that if the petitioner is required in connection with any investigation in criminal complaint, it is open to the police authority to issue written notice requiring his attendance, but they shall not harass the petitioner.

The Writ Petition is closed.
